Contract Signed for Memorial Construction

After months of work the Gleichen and District Memorial Committee met Thanksgivings day and signed a contract with the Edmonton Granite, Marble and Stone Co. for the construction and erection of the memorial in honor of our soldiers.

The contract is along the lines laid down at the public meeting held in the Opera House, and the design submitted appears neat and artistic.

There has been many delays in getting the construction under way and even now information is still wanting. At Monday's meeting it was thought however long the matter was left open there would still be some details unobtainable and all were agreed it was time to proceed to close up the bussines.

A small sub-committee was appointed with power to provide suitable inscriptions and the names of battles to be inscribed upon the memorial, and also add other names or make corrections on the list accepted by the whole committee.

That night the signed contract was mailed, along with the list of the men who fell or died and the following inscription:

"This Memorial was erected by the citizens of Gleichen and District [redacted]y of the men who fell, and in grateful recognition of all who served during the great war 1914-1918."

The sub-committee is holding for a few days the following list in hopes the year in which the men enlisted may be obtained, and ask any person who can supp'y this information to send it to The Call office at once.

Within the next week or two a vigorous campaign will be started to collect sufficient money to pay for the memorial, and nodoubt a most generous response will result.

It will be noted in the accepted roll of honor the names are arranged in alphabetically order under the year in which the men enlisted.

Everyone Who Bought Canada's Victory Bonds Made Money

EVERY one of the million and a half subscribers to Canada's Victory Bonds knows that he can sell them today for more than he paid for them.

Every one who bought Canada's Victory Bonds has received 5½ per cent. interest per annum—paid twice a year.

Over half a million Canadians who bought Canada's Victory Bonds on the instalment plan saved money that they would not otherwise have saved.

The guarantee back of Canada's Victory Bonds is the same as the guarantee back of a One Dollar or a Two Dollar bill. There is this difference, however, that you get interest on the Victory Bonds and you don't on the One or Two Dollar bill.

Canada's Victory Bonds will always be accepted as security for a loan.

Banks are ready to loan money on Canada's Victory Bonds.

Canada's Victory Bonds may be turned into cash at any time.

There is no other way in which you can invest your money with such absolute security—paying such a good rate of interest.

Canada will soon give her citizens an opportunity to buy Victory Bonds 1919. It will probably be the last chance to buy Canada's Victory Bonds on such favorable terms.

Prepare to buy as many Victory Bonds this time as you now wish you had been able to buy the last time

Proportional Representation --No. 3

Having in preceding articles referred to the inequalities in representation in our public bodies which result from our present system of election, and the methods which are proposed by Proportional Representation for overcoming these inequalities, it is now proposed to cite a few examples of results achieved where P.R. has been put into practice.

In the last British elections, seven of the English universities were combined into one constituency electing two members, and the election was conducted under the P.R. method. Four candidates were nominated for the two seats. When the ballots were counted it was found that first preferences had been recorded as follows: Fisher, 959; Hobson, 366; Williams, 366; Conway, 303—a total of 1,994.

With a total vote polled of 1,994, and with two candidates to be elected, the necessary quota to secure election would be arrived at by dividing 1,994 by three and adding one. This gives a quota of 665. Mr. Fisher, having polled 959 votes, was declared elected, and his surplus of votes over 665, namely, 294, was then distributed according to the second preferences indicated thereon. More than half, 162, fell to Conway, 88 to Hobson and 44 to Williams. The position of the candidates at the conclusion of the transfer was: Fisher, 665 (elected); Conway, 465; Hobson, 454; Williams, 410.

While one candidate was elected, not one of the other three had obtained a quota. The lowest on the poll, Williams, with 410 votes, was accordingly declared defeated, and his votes transferred. As many as 312 fell to Conway, thus bringing his total above the quota, and he was accordingly elected. Thus under P.R., a man who was at the foot of the poll on the first count was actually elected because he was a strong favorite as a second choice candidate.

An election under the Proportional Representation system which has attracted widespread attention was the municipal election in Sligo, Ireland, whereby the first town council in the United Kingdom to be chosen by the new method was selected. In that election 24 candidates were elected, eight from each of three wards. Four groups of candidates were in the field representing the Ratepayers' Association, Sinn Fein, Labor and Independents. The following table gives a summary of the final result, and reveals the fact that each group obtained representation in the council in proportion to their voting strength:

Parties	First Preferences	Seats in Proportion to First Preferences	Seats Actually Obtained
Ratepayers ...	823	8.94	8
Sinn Fein	674	7.33	7
Labor	432	4.70	5
Independents .	279	3.03	4
Totals	2,208	24.00	24

It is thus shown that all groups of citizens obtained representation, and that, if allowance is made for cross voting between the wards, they obtained representation in proportion to their numbers. Further, in all cases the electors had the final word in deciding which of the nominees of the various parties should be returned. The objects of P.R. being to secure freedom of choice in voting and justice in representation, these were secured by the single transferable vote.

Prior to this election in Sligo, as in so many other places, many of the more heavily-taxed citizens found themselves out-voted. After some time, they ceased to try to obtain representation. They were compelled to be content with criticising the work of the council from outside, and much of their criticism was justified, for, as is often the case when the constitution of the council is one-sided, the administration was not of a high order. The corporation, however, labored under difficulties. Its powers of assessment and taxation were limited. It inherited a considerable debt. Burdens imposed by the council continued to increase. Eventually the crash came. The corporation was bankrupt. The streets were, for a time, neither repaired nor swept and the street lights were not lit. As a result, there sprang into existence a vigorous Ratepayers' Association, in which many members of the hitherto unrepresented minority took a prominent part. The ratepayers challenged the action of the council in striking a rate in excess of its powers. Finally, a new municipal charter was passed, giving the corporation unlimited powers of assessment and taxation, but providing for an early election under the proportional system. The result, indicated above, shows that the ratepayers through their association candidates have now obtained fair and proportionate representation on the council.

Speaking of the election results, the newly-elected mayor says: "The elections recently conducted here under P.R. have given entire satisfaction to the people of Sligo, and under no circumstances would they be agreeable to go back to the old system."

(Next week some objections to P.R. will be dealt with.)

A Labor Saving Combination

"IT is the last straw that breaks the camel's back." So runs the old proverb. And it is the little extra efforts which tire you out on washday.

Eddy's
Indurated Fibreware
Washtubs and Washboards

form a combination which save you much extra labor. Indurated Fiberware tubs are much easier to lift and to move about. They keep the water hot for a much longer space of time, because they do not conduct heat as metal does. They are easier to keep clean, because they are made in one piece without joint or seam, and the hard, glazed surface is impervious to liquids or odors. And they cost no more. Last longer, too.

Eddy's Twin Beaver Washboard has a double rubbing surface of Indurated Fibreware which loosens the dirt quickly and saves many tiresome motions.

The Dummy Dome Of St. Paul's

It Is Built of Wood and Covered With Lead

Does it lessen the admiration with which you regard the towering dome of St. Paul's Cathedral, London, to know that it is a dummy? Nothing looks more solid, but it is only looks; it is quite incapable of supporting the weight of the lantern and gold ball and cross that seem to rest upon it, for it is built of wood covered with lead.

Sixty feet below it is another and quite separate dome. This, built of brick, is the dome you see from the interior, and between the two, hidden out of sight, is a brick cone, 18 inches in thickness and reinforced with iron tie-rods. The lantern and ball weigh 700 tons, and it is to support them that the cone is there.

But though the dome is thus not so solid as it seems, the whole superstructure—the two domes and their galleries and the lantern—have a total weight of 64,000 tons, carried by the eight central piers. Hence the great importance of ensuring that the strength of the piers is not decaying. The vibration of the traffic of a century and a half, together with the fact that some of the material used by Wren's builders was not of the best, has necessitated a good deal of repair. Each stone in the piers has to be sounded and tested for any signs of decay or hollowness, and any that does not pass the test has to be removed and a new stone put in its place.

U.S. Senate Adopts Prohibition Bill

Washington.—The bill for enforcement of wartime and constitutional prohibition as agreed to in congress was adopted by the senate without discussion. Absence of debate on the measure occasioned much surprise. Vice-President Marshall put the motion on adoption, and it was carried viva voce without an audible vote.

To Manufacture Briquettes

Lignite Board Locating $400,000 Plant to Make Cheap Fuel Immediately

Final decisions as to the location of the plant to manufacture briquettes from the lignite deposits in southeastern Saskatchewan and southwestern Manitoba will be made in the immediate future, stated R. A. Ross, chairman of the lignite utilization board, which held its first session in western Canada at Winnipeg recently.

Mr. Ross stated that the board would visit the lignite deposits and would go into the matter of the location of a $400,000 plant to be constructed under the direction of the board. Mr. Ross stated that it was the intention of the board to let all the contracts for the construction and equipment of the plant during the coming winter, construction to commence as soon as possible, and if the plan of the board did not miscarry, the plant would be producing briquettes by August, 1920. The capacity of the plant would be 30,000 tons a year and briquettes would be turned over to the coal dealers in Winnipeg at approximately $9.40 a ton.

The briquettes would be made from coal supplied from the mines already in the district and the board would probably pay $1 a ton for this coal. If the coal was not available from the mines the board would mine its own coal.

Third Dose Relief! Fifth Dose! Diarrhoea Stopped.

Diarrhoea does not need to persist for any length of time until the whole system is weakened and debilitated. No other disease so quickly undermines the strength and brings about a condition of prostration and very often total collapse.

Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry is not only prompt and effectual in checking the diarrhoea, but at the same time acts as a stimulant, strengthens the heart and braces up the whole system, and one of its principal points is that it does not leave the bowels in a constipated condition.

Mr. W. H. Arnold, Fort Qu'Appelle, Sask., writes: "A few years ago while out threshing, I had a severe attack of diarrhoea. Nothing I took seemed to do me any good. I was getting worse all the time. Hearing that Dr. Fowler's Extract of Wild Strawberry was good for diarrhoea, I went into town and procured a bottle. After the third dose I felt relief, and after I had taken the fifth dose the diarrhoea had stopped. I always keep it in the house, and would not be without it."

See that you get the original "Dr. Fowler's." It has been on the market for the past 74 years. Substitutes may endanger your health. Price 35c. Put up only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

Union of Maritime Provinces

Proposal to Merge New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island Into One Province

The respective governments of New Brunswick, Nova Scotia and Prince Edward Island are being asked to call a convention at an early date to consider the feasibility of uniting the three provinces into one. The request comes from the Maritime Board of Trade, which recently concluded its annual session at Moncton. The basic idea of maritime union has several times been indorsed by the board, but this is the first occasion on which a move toward definite action upon the question has been taken. Briefly, the reasons advanced in favor of union are that it would mean a large financial saving, inasmuch as three sets of governmental machinery would be replaced by one, that unnecessary duplication of activities would be ended and energy in public affairs would be concentrated, that there would be unity in support of common interests instead of the present division of effort, and that one unit would exert more influence in national affairs than can be exerted by three smaller units working separately.

Maritime union has had the support for a number of years of a group of prominent men in the provinces, among them the Hon. J. B. M. Baxter of St. John, recently attorney-general of New Brunswick; Mr. H. J. Logan, K.C., the new president of the Maritime Board of Trade; Mr. Fred Megee, a member of the New Brunswick Legislature; the Hon. C. W. Robinson, formerly Premier of New Brunswick and a member of the present New Brunswick Government, and several others who have been active in public life.

The Bolshevik armies in many sectors are led by German general staff officers, he declares.

No Free Repatriation of Dependents After December

Headquarters has warned all men of the Canadian overseas force on indefinite leave awaiting repatriation with dependents, to report immediately to the discharge depot at Buxton. They are also notified that free repatriation for dependents will not be allowed after December 31, except where statutory declaration is made showing that it was impossible for those concerned to proceed to Canada before that date.

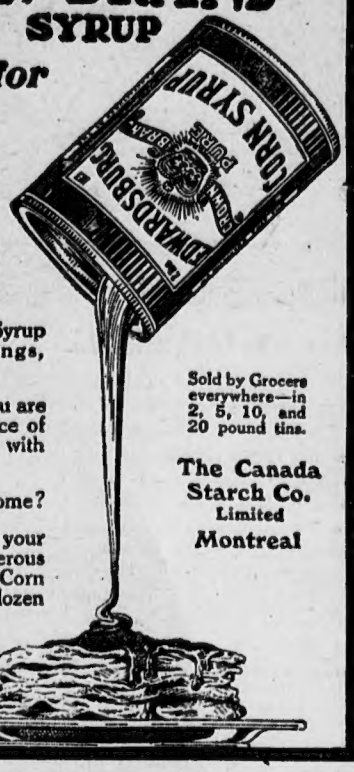

This does not refer to men who have taken discharge in the United Kingdom, therefore it does not affect men on whose behalf an appeal is now being made to the government for repatriation at the public expense.

GUARD THE CHILDREN FROM AUTUMN COLDS

The Fall is the most severe season of the year for colds—one day is warm, the next is wet and cold, and unless the mother is on her guard the little ones are seized with colds that may hang on all winter. The Salaried Man

Bill Introduced to Remove Restrictions as to Age

London, England.—An interesting paragraph in the [redacted] the International News stated that the Icelandic Government has introduced a bill into the Althing for the amendment of the Constitution in such a way as to give equal political suffrage for elections in districts to all men and women of 25 years, while 35 years is to be the qualifying age for electors of both sexes for elections to the Upper House. It is considered certain that this amendment will be passed, in which case the elections will take place in the spring. Four years ago the Icelandic women were enfranchised, subject to certain restrictions as to age, which the amendment bill now before the Althing will remove.

Impossible Now To Nationalize Mines

London.—Premier Lloyd George, answering demands made by British miners at a conference, admitted that many advantages could be secured from joint control of mines by capital and labor, but declared the government was unable to frame its policy on the lines of the miners' suggestions.

The demands of the British miners, backed and endorsed by the general British trade union congress for the nationalization of the coal mines, were laid before the Prime Minister by representatives of the parliamentary committee of the trades union congress of the miners' federation. As it happens, J. H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen and leader of the recent strike, was called upon to head the deputation, which, by presenting to the Prime Minister the resolution adopted at the Glasgow convention, pledging the trades unions to co-operate with the miners' federation, compelling the government to accept nationalization of mines, faces the government with an industrial crisis of no less importance than that brought about by the railroad strike just ended.

Robert Smillie, head of the miners' federation, stated the case for nationalization. He was supported by Frank Hodges and William Brace, of the miners' federation, formerly secretary for home affairs in the Asquith cabinet.

The Premier spoke for one hour and made it clear the government was not prepared to accept the recommendations of the coal commission, headed by Sir John Sankey, to acquire and run the mines as state property. He expressed the hope that the miners' federation and the trades union movement would co-operate to obtain the largest possible measure of agreement for the government's scheme as already outlined by himself in the House of Commons, according to unofficial reports, for the conference was private.

Mr. Lloyd George conceded that the demand for nationalization had been a plank in the labor platform for years, and the deputation which [redacted]day was acting far [redacted] interest, but with a desire to benefit society as a whole. The government, however, felt, he said, that nationalization was not a step in the interest of the state.

A the close of the conference the deputation promised to report its result to members of the various unions on October 22, and that subsequent action would be left to the parliamentary committee which was appointed at the trades union congress recently held at Glasgow. It is understood that in view of the deputation, the Premier's statement was most unsatisfactory, one delegate characterizing it as "positively disheartening."

An official statement was issued stating that Lloyd George had agreed to the deputation's request for payment of wages of those made idle by the railway strike, instead of giving them an unemployment allowance.

Steamers for Ireland

London.—The Cork Development Association has received a cablegram from Henry Ford stating that he is considering running a line of steamers to Ireland.

Plan Reform in Election Laws

Double Representation Not Permissible If Amendments Are Approved

Ottawa.—Double representation of constituencies in the Dominion parliament will not be permissible in future if amendments to S. W. Jacobs' bill to change the House of Commons Act agreed to by the privileges and elections committee are approved by parliament.

Mr. Jacobs' bill, as originally introduced, provided that a member elected for two seats must, within thirty days, make a choice as to the seat he proposes to represent.

The committee, after considerable discussion, agreed to an amendment providing that no person shall be eligible for election to the House of Commons in more than one electoral district at the same time. The further provision is made that if a man accepts nomination in two constituencies such nominations will be null and void. The law will apply to by-elections as well as to general election contests.

The clause in Mr. Jacobs' bill, which made provision for the filling of vacancies which occurred within 60 days, was also changed. The amendment provides for the filling of such vacancies within six months.

Strikers Granted Increase

London.—A court of arbitration considering the demands of the trammen and bus-workers in London and the provinces has made an award granting an increase in wages amounting to four shillings weekly to those over 18 years of age and two shillings to those below that age. The recent agitation among the men was for an increase of 12 shillings weekly.

Prohibition Has Large Majority

Christiania.—The vote by which Norway adopted the prohibition of whiskey, brandy and other strong liquors in the referendum was 428,455 in favor of prohibition and 284,137 against.

Christiania was strongly against the proposition, only 18,500 voting for it, as compared with 70,000 in opposition. The measure does not affect wines and beers.

Dominion Guards Unlikely

London.—The London correspondent of the Manchester Guardian intimates that the suggested establishment of a battalion or regiment of Dominion Guards for an addition to the home brigade has been found impracticable, but possibly the idea of attachment of recognized Canadian, Anzac or South African units may be attainable, though presenting considerable difficulties.

Irish Bill for New Session

London.—Parliamentarians say the Irish Bill will be the feature of the new session of parliament, and the cabinet is now considering one drafted on lines of dominion home rule, but with suggested alterations that any county may stand out, or Ulster counties be all included and have their own secretaries of state.

In Madras the tanning of snakeskins for the manufacture of women's belts has become quite a profitable industry.

Political Leader Shot in Germany

Assailant Actuated by Motives of Personal Revenge

Berlin.—Huga Haase, leader of the independent socialists, was shot but a quarter of an hour before he expected to make a sensational disclosure in the national assembly in connection with the government's Baltic policy and the tolerant attitude of the Berlin government toward the West Russian anti-Bolshevik government; the establishment of which was the result of a hoax perpetrated by an individual posing as the representative of a New York banking house. This fact gave currency to a rumor that the attempt against Herr Haase's life had a political origin, but a cross-examination of Voss, his assailant, indicated that he was actuated by motives of personal revenge.

When the session opened, Konstantin Fahrenbach, president of the national assembly, announced that Herr Haase had been attacked, and the house at once voted sympathy to his family as well as to his party.

Coal Discovery Near Swift Current

Vein Measures All the Way From Ten to Twelve Feet

Swift Current, Sask. — That the northwesterly district immediately contiguous to Swift Current may yet become an important coal producing centre is more probable than most people imagine, according to the opinion of several competent judges.

On this side of the river, between the Cabri and Pennant ferries, prospecting operations have been quietly conducted for the past twelve months. The results of these investigations have proved that a body of coal exists in that vicinity, but to what extent has not yet been ascertained. The vein has been uncovered, however, in about half a dozen places and measures all the way from ten to twelve feet.

The quality of the find has not yet been determined, but one of the prospectors has made several experiments with most satisfactory results. Considerable staking of claims has taken place and already three sections have been covered.

It is learned that a considerable amount of local capital has been subscribed for the purpose of carrying out further investigations.

Settlers Barred From Pacific Islands

Melbourne, Australia.—Until the Australian government is informed definitely regarding the terms of the mandate under which it will administer the former German possessions in the Pacific, it will not make any allotment of land there for prospective settlers.

This decision has been reached by the Commonwealth authorities, following requests from the Returned Soldiers' and Sailors' Imperial League for holdings in the Pacific Islands.

Will Deal With Wife Deserters

London. — The Lambeth pauper guardians have decided to approach the Dominion representatives here concerning the problem of wives deserted by dwellers in the Dominions, who spent some time here. They propose the establishment of courts here and in the Dominion, to consider matrimonial cases when one party resides in a different part of the empire, and that the authority of such courts be respected all over the dominions.

General Gouraud High Commissioner

Paris.—General Gouraud, whose brilliant defence in the region east of Reims baffled General Ludendorff in his attempt to crush the French army in the offensive of July, 1918, has been appointed high commissioner of France in Syria and commander-in-chief of the French army in the east. His appointment will be officially made public in the Journal Official.

Japan to Ratify Pact

Paris.—Ratification by the Japanese parliament of the German peace treaty is not required by the constitution of Japan, according to information from peace conference circles. Signature by the Emperor after consultation with the private diplomatic council constitutes the necessary ratification, and this is expected to take place by October 15.

Zeppelin Service Opens

Stockholm.—Zeppelin airship service between here and Berlin was opened by the German aircraft company. The airship Bodenzo left Berlin at 5 a.m. and reached here at 12.30 p.m. The company proposes a regular bi-weekly service, the fare being fixed at 400 kroner per passenger. Twenty-five passengers can be accommodated on each trip.

Nationalists Capture Konieh

Apprehension That Turkish Throne May Be In Danger

Paris.—Konieh, an important railroad centre, is in the hands of the Turkish Nationalist troops.

This city, which in the days of Roman power was known as Iconium and was the capital of the province of Lyaconia, stands in a position which virtually dominates South Asia Minor. Its capture appears to indicate that Mustapha Kemal is in control of the vast region stretching from Konieh from the southwest to Erzerum, the principal city of Turkish Armenia, a distance of 425 miles. It is said the fall of the Turkish cabinet was caused by the capture of Konieh, and there seems to be some apprehension in some quarters that the Turkish throne may be in danger.

On the other hand, French circles point out that Djemal Pasha, the newly appointed Turkish minister of war, is a political ally of Mustapha Kemal.

Great Britain began to withdraw her troops from Armenia in August, and it is probable this movement is now far advanced. France has forces in Syria, while Greece and Italy have small detachments at various points along the coast of Asia Minor.

None of these nations, however, appears to have sufficient forces to conduct a campaign in the interior of the country. Great Britain's army in Mesopotamia and in Palestine, to the east and south, seems to be too far away to menace the spread of the Turkish nationalist movement, led by Mustapha Kemal.

Prohibition in Norway

Despite This, Arrests for Intoxication Have Been Increasing

Christiania.—War-time prohibition, operating since December, 1916, and forbidding the sale and private importation of spirits and strong liquors has been made permanent.

Despite this prohibition, arrests for intoxication have been steadily increasing throughout the country, and in some places have been higher than before the war-time prohibition was put into effect.

Substitutes for liquor, especially denatured alcohol, are being used everywhere. Illegal distillation also is increasing, especially in the rural districts.

It is feared that France, Spain and Portugal, from which countries liquor was imported, may retaliate with a tariff on Norwegian products, such as timber and fish, thereby injuring especially the Norwegian fish trade, 60 per cent. of which goes to Portugal.

Barrage Removed From North Sea

Washington. — Removal of the great North Sea barrage laid by the United States navy during the war has been completed.

This was disclosed when Secretary of the Navy Daniels made public a cablegram of congratulation sent to Rear-Admiral Strauss, who commanded the force which since last October had been engaged in the hazardous task of sweeping the 50,000 mines from the sea.

Only one serious accident attended the work, one of the sweepers being blown up with the loss of several lives.

King Albert Runs Train

Chicago.—The King of the Belgians ran the engine of his own train for ten miles. The special train on which the King and his party are travelling westward was stopped at Wauscon, Ohio, while His Majesty climbed into the cab of the engine and took over the throttle from the grimy pilot. The King, who has a thorough knowledge of locomotive engineering, ran the heavy train for 10 miles without a jolt, then he stopped the engine and returned to his car.

Fatal Tornado in Kansas

Hoisington, Kas. — Two persons were killed and 25 injured, some of them seriously, and property damaged, estimated at a quarter of a million dollars, resulted when a tornado struck here and swept a path of destruction several blocks wide through the business and residential section of the city.

Police Reach Budapest

Paris.—The arrival of 1,800 British soldiers, forming part of the international detachment to take over the police service at Budapest after the departure of the Rumanians, is reported in dispatches from the Hungarian capital. Two thousand Italian soldiers are also expected.

Amsterdam.—The former German emperor will remove from Amerongen about December 16, and take up his residence at Doorn.

Concerning Shipping Supervision

Co-operation to Be Introduced in Control of Ocean Tonnage

Ottawa.—Replying to a question by J. E. Armstrong, Sir George Foster, Minister of Trade and Commerce, stated that the Dominion Government has called the Imperial Government's attention to injustices in connection with the supervision by the British Ministry of Shipping in the employment of vessels under charter by Canadian shipping interests.

In reply to another question, Sir George stated that the Canadian Government will co-operate with the Imperial Government and other overseas dominions in considering the question of the supervision and control of ocean tonnage between the different parts of the British dominions.

In reference to a report of a British royal commission in favor of government supervision in trans-Atlantic shipping, the minister stated that this report will probably form the subject matter of consideration at the next Imperial conference.

Heavy Expenditures

Deputy Minister of Finance Submits Figures to Committee on Soldiers' Civil Re-establishment

Ottawa.—A presentation of the government's obligations in regard to the payment of perhaps $200,000,000 re-establishment grant in addition to the burdens already to be borne, was given to the special committee on the soldiers' civil re-establishment by T. C. Boville, deputy minister of finance.

Since March 31, 1914, the public net debt has increased 580 per cent., from $335,996,000 to an estimate for 1919-20 of $1,950,000,000. Pensions are estimated this year at $30,000,000; land settlement, $25,000,000; and soldiers' civil re-establishment, $10,000,000. Interest on the public debt has risen from $12,093,000 in 1913-14 to $102,762,000 this year.

War expenditures for 1919-29 were estimated at $350,000,000 exclusive of pensions, and this year's consolidated revenue receipts were estimated at $244,000,000.

For Sweeping Reform

National Women's Council Present Views on Many Subjects

Calgary.—Resolutions asking that second offences for bootlegging be punishable by jail sentences, that equal parental rights be established in the province, that widows be given greater power under the Dower Act, that a living wage be incorporated in the Factories Act, that hotels and lodging houses be licensed to bring them under police regulation, and that marriage licenses be issued only from courthouses by responsible parties and that the lists be published every day, were passed by the provincial executive of the National Council of Women, which met here recently.

Will Investigate Irrigation in West

Ottawa.—The agriculture committee of the commons recently gave consideration to the question of irrigation in the dry areas of the prairie provinces. During the discussion the important announcement was made by Professor J. A. Grisdale, Deputy Minister of Agriculture, that the Department of Agriculture, realizing the importance of this matter, is undertaking to carry on a thorough enquiry into the whole question, which may lead to important results.

Italy Ratifies Peace Pacts

Rome.—King Victor Emmanuel has ratified the German and Austrian treaties by decree.

The Giornale d'Italia says that each decree contains two articles, the first authorizing the government to execute the treaty fully and the second setting forth that the documents be presented to parliament to be converted into law.

Irish Home Rule Bill

London.—Parliamentarians say the Irish bill will be the feature of the new session of parliament, and the cabinet is now considering one drafted on lines of dominion home rule, but with suggested alterations that any county may stand out or Ulster counties be all included and have their own secretary of state.

Ready to Ratify Pact

London.—Great Britain's ratification of the Peace Treaty, the Foreign Office says, awaits only the King's proclamation. All the dominions have ratified the treaty, the Australian House on September 15 and the Senate on October 15.

May Try Arbitration Of Big Steel Strike

Gen. Mangin Will Assist Denikine

He Will Be Accompanied By Russian Ambassador to Paris

Paris.—General Mangin, whose recall to Paris from command of the eighth army, has just been announced, is to proceed to south Russia and join General Denikine, the anti-Bolshevik commander there, according to L'Eclair. He will be accompanied by Basile Maklakoff, Russian ambassador to Paris, their mission being to co-ordinate the policy of the anti-Bolshevik government.

The eighth and tenth French armies are being broken up as units, and Generals Mangin and Gerard, who commanded them, have been recalled and placed at the disposition of the minister of war. Newspapers are greatly interested in this step, and explain it differently. While the opposition press insinuates that General Mangin may be out of favor, which it insists is undeserved, a majority of the newspapers declare the move is only an administrative measure resulting from the grouping of occupation groups in the Rhineland. It is said the eighth and tenth armies will soon be re-formed into a single corps, which will be commanded by General Degoutte.

Want Standardized Parts

Ottawa.—The Commons' committee on agriculture received the report of the manufacturers' committee dealing with the proposal that the standardization of parts of agricultural implements should be agreed to in order to make it more convenient and save cost to the farmers. The report pointed out a great many difficulties in the way of successfully carrying out the plan.

After some discussion it was agreed not to allow the matter to drop, but to continue he discussion with the manufacturers during the parliamentary recess.

Quantity of Liquor Seized

Winnipeg. — Intoxicating liquor, rye whiskey, Scotch whiskey, Irish whiskey, cherry whiskey, gin, brandy and rum to the estimated value of $20,000 was seized by the city police morality department at the corner of Notre Dame avenue and Charlotte street. S. Gold, head of the firm of Gold & Cheick, alleged to have been carrying on the business of wholesale bootlegging, was filling bottles with liquor, surrounded by many modern appliances to facilitate, when arrested.

California to Entertain King Albert

Santa Barbara, Calif.—Wild boar hunting on Santa Cruze Island, seaplane flights, motor jaunts about the city, a banquet and other features are on the program to be tendered King Albert and Queen Elizabeth of Belgium and members of their suite upon arrival here.

Bulgaria Seeks Time Extension

Paris.—The supreme council will meet to reply to the request of Bulgaria for an extension of ten days to the time granted it for presentation of its observations on the treaty handed to the Bulgarian commissioners September 19.

Moroccan Tribes Defeated

Madrid. — Moroccan tribes have been utterly defeated, and it is expected that operations in that country will be terminated soon. Communication has been re-established between Tetuan and Tangier.

Washington.— Concrete proposals designed to bring about better relations between employees and employers, were laid before the national industrial conference by members of the various groups making up the gathering. The proposals included:

Arbitration of the nation-wide steel strike with the return of the men to work pending settlement; and industrial truce starting immediately and continuing three months.

Creation of an arbitration board by the president and congress and including among its members all ex-presidents.

Comprehensive plans for adjudication of industrial disputes through boards of arbitration in the various industries.

The conference also took its first concerted action in adopting a motion offered by Thomas L. Chadbourn, a representative of the public, providing that a committee consisting of three members from each of the groups of employers, labor and the public, be appointed to investigate the high cost of living.

Italians Are Excited

By Warnings With Regard to Situation at Fiume

Rome.—Much excitement in political circles and extended comment in the press has been caused by the reported receipts of warnings from Great Britain and the United States to Italy with regard to the situation at Fiume. It is declared that the British warning stated in effect that if "the present illegal situation" at Fiume should continue Italy would "run the risk of being put out of the alliance and the peace conference," and that it was received a few days after a similar warning from the United States.

The Tribuna prints a violent article stigmatising the warnings and saying that the British and American warnings should not be addressed to Italy, but to d'Annunzio, as "Fiume is not Italy; in fact, Fiume is fighting against the Italian government which, together with the other allies, is unable to solve the Adriatic problem after the disavowal of the pact of London."

Argentine Will Give Credit

Government Acceded to Request of France and Italy

Buenos Ayres. — Declaring that large stocks of Argentina grain would not be sold unless the government acceded to the request of France and Italy for a credit of $200,000,000 with which to purchase cereals, a delegation representing the chamber of commerce of Rosario, a great grain centre, requested President Irrigoyen to expedite the loan by calling an extra session of congress. The regular session adjourned recently without acting on the loan. President Irrigoyen indicated he would endeavor to convene congress as early as possible and would recommend the loan as business of the first importance.

Will Release Poles

Warsaw.—A Polish-German agreement has been signed by the Polish delegation at Berlin providing for the release of Poles interned in Germany for their military, political or national activity. The revoking of all sentences imposed on Poles and free return of the agreement which concerns Upper Silesia as well as Poland. The agreement will be in force immediately after its ratification.

Strikers Denounced By Lloyd George

London.—Premier Lloyd George surprised his countrymen, as he frequently does, by denouncing the railwaymen's strike as "Prussianism" and "another effort to hold up the community and strangle it into submission," at the Lord Mayor's Mansion House luncheon in honor of Field Marshal Allenby.

The occasion was an unusual one for such a topic, but the Premier has a habit of doing unusual things at unusual times. Near him sat Emil Faisal, son of the king of the Hedjaz, in white robes, and the Archbishop of Canterbury with an array of other military and civilian notables, such as only London can muster on ceremonial occasions. They expected nothing more sensational than compliments to the conqueror of Palestine.

"The nation means to be master in her own house," Mr. Lloyd George declared, "a just master, a fair master, a generous master, but always master in her own house."

This was naturally accepted as a proclamation of the Premier's view that the country won a victory over the strikers.

J. H. Thomas, secretary of the National Union of Railwaymen, and leader of the recent strike, speaking at Albert Hall, dwelt on the settlement of a compromise, and issued a statement appealing for reconciliation and a burial of hard feeling.

Labor papers appear to differ with Mr. Thomas as to some aspects of the strike settlement. When Mr. Lloyd George makes an important speech, newspapers try to read between the lines to discover his political purposes. The general interpretation of this speech is that the Premier has broken with labor unions and wants to draw to his support the middle classes, who apparently tended to drop away from him as a result of the recent campaign upon the alleged governmental extravagance.

Right of Provinces To Enforce Prohibition

Ottawa. — Legislation making it possible for a province to have absolute prohibition, either of importation or manufacture, or both, of spirituous beverages, was introduced in the house by Hon. C. J. Doherty, Minister of Justice. Before a province can bring about bone-dry conditions, however, there must be a plebiscite taken under the authorization of the resolution amendment by the provincial legislature. When this has been done, and a plebiscite is duly taken, then whatever the plebiscite provides for will be brought about by proclamation, issued in accordance with the proceedings provided in the Canada Temperance Act, of which the bill introduced is an amendment.

Replying to a series of questions by W. F. MacLean, the minister explained that the present law in Ontario in regard to which a referendum is being taken does not deal with the question of the importation or manufacture of liquor. The province, he said, takes the position that they cannot deal with that question. "This," added the minister, referring to the bill he had just introduced, "would be a method whereby in virtue of Dominion legislation becoming operative by the vote of the electorate of a province, Importation into that province or manufacture in it would be prohibited."

A light of satisfaction was in his teacher's eyes as Dave made this answer. Mr. Duncan had realized that he was starting late with this pupil, and if there were any short cuts to education he must find them. So he had set out deliberately to instil the idea that education is not a matter of schools and colleges, or courses of reading, or formulae of any kind, but a matter of the five senses applied to every experience of life. And he knew that nothing was coarse or common that passed through Dave's hands. Coal had ceased to be a smutty mineral, and had taken on talismanic qualities unguessed by the mere animal workman; and sugar, and coffee, and beans, and rice, and spices, each would open its own wonderful world before this young and fertile mind. As an heritage from his boyhood on the ranges, Dave had astonishingly alert senses; his sight, his hearing, his sense of smell and of touch were vastly more acute than those of the average university graduate. . . . And if that were true, might it not fairly be said that Dave was already the better educated of the two, even if he, as yet, knew nothing of the classics?

As Dave parted from the Metford gang he felt that he knew what Mr. Duncan had meant by the dead-line. These were men who would always shovel coal, because they aspired to nothing better. There was no atom of snobbery in Dave's nature; he knew perfectly well that shovelling coal was quite as honorable and respectable a means of livelihood as managing a bank, but the man who was content to shovel coal was on the dead-line. . . . And, by the same logic, the man who was content to manage a bank was on the dead-line. That was a new and somewhat startling aspect of life. He must discuss it with Mr. Duncan.

Dave's energy and enthusiasm in the warehouse soon brought him promotion from truck hand to shipping clerk, with an advance in wages to sixty-five dollars a month. He was prepared to remain in this position for some time, as he knew that promotion depends on many things besides ability. Mr. Duncan had warned him against the delusion that man is entirely master of his destiny. "Life, my boy," he had said, "is fifty per cent. environment and forty per cent. heredity. The other ten per cent. is yours. But that ten per cent. is like the steering gear in an automobile; it's only a small part of the mechanism, but it directs the course of the whole machine. Get a good grip on the part of your life you can control, and don't worry over the rest."

To economize both time and money Dave took his lunch with him and ate it in the warehouse. He had also become possessed of a pocket encyclopaedia and it was his habit to employ the minutes saved by eating lunch in the warehouse in reading from his encyclopaedia. It chanced one day that as he was reading in the noon hour Mr. Trapper, the head of the firm, came through the warehouse. Dave knew him but little; he thought of him as a stern, unapproachable man, and avoided him as much as possible. But this time Mr. Trapper was upon him before he was seen.

"What are you reading?" he demanded. "Yellow backed nonsense?"

"No, sir," said Dave, rising and extending his arm with the book.

"Why, what's this?" queried Mr. Trapper, in some surprise. "Tea—tea—oh, I see, it's an encyclopaedia. What is the idea, young man?"

"I always like to read up about the stuff we are handling," said Dave. "It's interesting to know all about it; where it comes from, how it is grown, what it is used for, the different qualities, and so forth."

"H'm," said Mr. Trapper, returning the book. "No doubt." And he walked on without further comment. But that afternoon he had something to say to his manager.

"That young fellow on the shipping desk—Elden, I think his name is. How do you find him?"

"Very satisfactory, sir. Punctual, dependable, and accurate."

"Watch him," said Mr. Trapper.

The manager swung around in his chair. "Why, what do you mean? You haven't occasion to suspect—"

Mr. Trapper's customary sternness slowly relaxed, until there was the suggestion of a smile about the corners of his mouth, and rather more than a suggestion in the twinkle in his eye.

"Do you know what I caught that young fellow doing during noon hour?" he asked. "Reading up the encyclopaedia on tea. Tea, mind you. Said he made a practice of reading up on the stuff we are handling. We, mind you. Found it very interesting to know where it came from, and all about it. I've been in the grocery business for pretty close to forty years, and I've seen many an employee spend his noon hour in the pool rooms, or in some other back room, or just smoking, but this is the first one I ever caught reading up the business in an encyclopaedia. Never read it that way myself. Well — you watch him. I'd risk a ten-spot that he knows more about tea this minute than half of our travellers."

But Dave was not to continue in the grocery trade, despite his reading of the encyclopaedia. A few evenings later he was engaged in reading in the public library; not an encyclopaedia, but Shakespeare. The encyclopaedia was for such time as he could save from business hours, but for his evening reading Mr. Duncan had directed him into the realm of fiction and poetry, and he was now feeling his way through Hamlet. From the loneliness of his boyhood he had developed the habit of talking aloud to himself, and in abstracted moments he read in an audible whisper which impressed the substance more deeply on his mind, but made him unpopular in the public reading rooms. It was well known among the patrons of the rooms that he read Hamlet. This fact, however, may not have been altogether to Dave's disadvantage. On the evening in question an elderly man engaged him in conversation.

"You are a Shakespearean student, I see?"

"Not exactly. I read a little in the evenings. But I haven't gone far enough to call myself a student."

"I have seen you here different times. Are you well acquainted with the town?"

"Pretty well," said Dave, scenting that there might be a purpose in the questioning.

"Working now?"

Dave told him where he was employed.

"I am the editor of "The Call," said the elderly man. "We need another man on the street; a reporter, you know. We pay twenty-five dollars a week for such a position. If you are interested you might call at the office tomorrow."

Dave hurried with his problem to Mr. Duncan. "I think I'd like the work," he said, "but I am not sure whether I can do it. My writing is rather—wonderful."

Mr. Duncan turned the matter over in his mind. "Yes," he said at length, "but I notice you are beginning to use the typewriter. When you learn that God gave you ten fingers, not two, you may make a typist. And there is nothing more worth while than being able to express yourself in English. They'll teach you that on a newspaper. I think I'd take it.

"Not on account of the money," he continued, after a little. "You would probably soon be earning more in the wholesale business. Newspaper men are about the worst paid of all professions. But it's the best training in the world, not for itself, but as a step to something else. I have often wondered why editors, who are forever setting every other phase of the world's work to rights, are content to train up so many thousands of bright young men—and then pass them along into other businesses where they are better paid. But the training is worth while, and it's the training you want. Take it."

Dave explained his disadvantages to the editor of "The Call." I didn't want you to think," he said with great frankness, "that because I was reading Shakespeare I was a master of English. And I guess if I were to write up stuff in Hamlet's language I'd get canned for it."

"We'd probably have a deputation from the Moral Reform League," said the editor, with a dry smile. "Just the same, if you know Shakespeare you know English, and we'll soon break you into the newspaper style."

So, almost before he knew it, Dave was on the staff of "The Call." His beat comprised the police court, fire department, hotels, and general pick-ups. And the very first day, as though to afford fuel for his genius, a small fire occurred in a clothing store.

"'S good for two sticks — about four inches," said the editor, when Dave had given him the main facts. "Write your story to fit."

Dave suddenly realized that, although he had been a persistent reader of newspapers during the recent months, he had scarcely the remotest idea of how many words went to a column, or to an inch. It was a piece of information needed at once, so he set about to count the words in a column. Then he wrote his story to fit. He had already learned that everything in a newspaper office, from a wedding to a ball game, is "a story." When he turned his in it looked like this:

The fire bell was heard ringing this morning about ten o'clock, and soon after crowds were seen wending their way to the Great West Clothing Store. There was a heavy black smoke coming from the back end of the store. The firemen were late in getting there, and before they arrived a man had got badly choked by trying to go into the store. Presently the engine came up and before long water was being applied in great quantities, and soon the fire was under control. Part of the roof fell in, and the building is pretty badly ruined. Some of the contents may be fit for sale. It seems too bad that the fire engine should have been so long in coming, as without doubt if it had got there promptly the fire could have been put out before much damage occurred. However, it might have been worse, as it was a frame building, in a row of other frame buildings, and if the fire had once got beyond control much damage might have been done. Nobody seems to know how the fire started.

It was with much quiet excitement that he awaited the appearance of the evening edition. He had a strange eagerness to see his contribution in print; a manifestation, no doubt, of that peculiar trait in human nature which fills the editorial waste basket with unaccepted contributions.

A cool, clean shave for 1/5 of a cent!

A cool, clean, satiny shave for 1/5 of a cent —think of it! At least 500 shaves are obtained from 12 AutoStrop blades, and you often get more than that.

Just a turn or two on the strop and your AutoStrop Razor is ready. After shaving, you press a little lever, put the blade under the tap, wipe it off, and it is ready for the next shave. There is no need to take the razor to pieces and assemble it again; simply leave the blade where it is from start to finish. This means time saved in the morning rush—and a razor blade that's good for about six weeks' clean, cool shaves.

A Pioneer Of Aviation

Alberto Santos Dumont First Pilot to Fly an Aeroplane

To many readers the name Alberto Santos Dumont will be unfamiliar, and yet it is the name of one of the most successful pioneers in aviation. He is a native of Brazil, and has been president of the Aeronautic Federation of the Western Hemisphere. He is now visiting North America for the purpose of studying the improvements made in aviation since he showed the world how to fly. He was the first pilot of a dirigible balloon, and the first to fly an airplane. His interest in balloons developed at an early age, and in 1901 he had perfected a dirigible with which he won at Paris the prize of $50,000. He was made a chevalier in the French Legion of Honor in 1904 and received the officers' cross in 1909.

"Flying," said Senor Dumont in a recently given interview, "is a young man's game, and I will do my flying now as a passenger." He characterized the Atlantic flights as "wonderful achievements," but said the real progress in aviation is being made in shorter and more practical flights.

If Constipated, Bilious or Headachy, take "Cascarets"

Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, or sour, gassy stomach — always trace this to torpid liver; delayed, fermenting food in the bowels.

Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep.

Buys Drilling Plant

The Great West Natural Gas Company of Calgary have purchased the California oil well drilling plant owned at Eastend by a local syndicate, and it is reported that they are moving it to the field which they have selected for the purpose of supplying natural gas to Moose Jaw and Regina. The plant is said to be one of the best of its kind, and is capable of drilling to a depth of 5,000 feet.

The Swiss legation in Paris, it is stated, sent information to this effect to the central office for prisoners of war for transmission to Germany.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

LESSON FOR OCTOBER 19

JESUS IN PETER'S HOME

I. Healing of Simon's Wife's Mother (vv. 29-31).

1. A loved one ill (v. 30). From the synagogue Jesus with James and John went to the home of Peter and Andrew, where he found Peter's mother-in-law prostrate with a burning fever. Among the closest followers there are suffering ones and anxious and burdened hearts, but to all such he comes with loving sympathy and power to help. His power is the same in the quietude of the home as in the public meeting place.

2. They tell him of her (v. 31). This was the proper thing to do. We should bring to our Saviour's attention those of our families who have need, of both bodily and spiritual healing.

3. He healed her (v. 31). "He came and took her by the hand and lifted her up." This act showed the nearness, sympathetic tenderness and power of Jesus. At his touch the fever departed and strength was imparted to her body so that she was at once able to minister unto them.

4. She ministered to them (v. 31). This act shows that (1) the cure was instantaneous and complete. When Jesus heals there is no halfway business. It is the same with spiritual healing. (2) Gratitude on the part of the one healed. Those who have experienced the healing power of Jesus will express their gratitude in loving service to the Lord and his disciples.

II. Christ's Ministry at Sunset (vv. 32-34).

It became noised about that a notable miracle had been wrought in Peter's home, therefore as soon as the Sabbath drew to a close many demon-possessed and diseased were brought to him to be healed. If we would have the crowds to gather today we must be able to show that Jesus is at work among us. Our testimony should be backed by the healed body or soul.

1. He healed those of divers diseases (v. 34). Jesus can heal any disease. Many of the cures spoken of today are temperamental, but the cures wrought by Jesus were of all sorts. No malady ever baffled him.

2. Cast out many devils (v. 34). The devils obey him. There is no record of a demon ever disputing the authority of Jesus. At his command they rendered instant obedience.

3. Suffered not the devils to speak (v. 34). He bids the saved soul witness of his saving power, but will not allow the devils to speak in challenge of his authority or in witness of the truth of his deity.

III. Jesus Retires to Pray (vv. 35-37).

The arduous service of the day made it desirable to be alone with the Father in prayer. Shut out from man—alone with God. How necessary the hush of the eternal, the calm of God! There is great need of private prayer.

IV. Preaching Throughout Galilee (vv. 38, 39).

He continued steadfastly to preach, for this was his supreme business. His miraculous works were but aids to his testimony. Preaching the gospel is the chief concern of all who would follow Jesus.

Indians Kill Game Out of Season

Department Has Received Numerous Complaints of Activities of Indians

Regina, Sask.—An accusation that Indians are killing off big game out of season is made by F. Bradshaw, chief game guardian for Saskatchewan, who states that the toll taken illegally by the redskin during the past few years is jeopardizing the existence of some of the finest fauna on the North American continent.

While the Indians rarely hunt big game during the open season, they are shooting down moose and elk during the months of August, September and October, when they are easily lured to destruction by the use of a call. The department has received numerous complaints of the activities of the Indians in recent years, and investigation proves that in nearly every instance the allegations are fully substantiated.

France Lives!

The announcement that "national" clothing to be put on sale in France to reduce the cost of living is not more interesting than the statement that the cloth is to come from the reconstructed mills a Roubaix, in the invaded district, near the Belgian border. France is recovering.—From the Buffalo Express.

There is plenty of room at the top, but as soon as a man gets there he tries his best to occupy it all.

Nationalist Troops Expel Turk Officials

Possession of Konie Is of Great Strategic Importance

Constantinople.—The troops under the Nationalist leader Mustappa Kemal Pasha, who recently set up a separatist government in Asia Minor, have occupied the city of Konie, in southern Asia Minor, and expelled the authorities.

Earlier dispatches had reported the convoking of a separatist parliament by Mustappa Kemal to meet at Erzerum, the site of his government, and activities of his troops in the vicinity of Smyrna and Erzerum. The presence of his troops in sufficient strength to take possession of Konie, a city of 45,000 inhabitants and one of the most important administrative centres of Asia Minor, had not hitherto been reported in that section. Possession of this city is of great strategic importance, since it is the railhead of the railroads heading from Constantinople and from Smyrna.

Canada's Railways

There are 39,000 miles of steam railways in Canada, but if all tracks be taken into account, such as double tracks, yard tracks and sidings, there are 50,853 miles. The first railway in Canada was opened in 1836 between Laprairie on the south bank of the St. Lawrence River, nine miles above Montreal, and St. Johns, on the Richelieu River. Its length was 16 miles. That continued to be the total railway mileage until 1847, when it was increased to 54 miles.

"Where is the Dead Sea, Tommy?" asked the teacher.

"Don't know, ma'am," was the candid reply.

"Don't know where the Dead Sea is?" There was a scorn in teacher's voice.

"No ma'am," came the reply. "I didn't even know any of them was sick."

Teacher: "How do bees dispose of their honey?"

Clever Pupil: "They cell it."

Britain's Best Mind

Of the new British ambassador to the United States, A. G. Gardiner writes in the Toronto Daily News:

"In Lord Grey we are sending to America the best mind of the nation; not a cunning mind, nor a clever mind, but a mind noble in thought, disinterested in purpose, spacious of vision, moved as only great souls can be moved by the agony of these years and inspired by the single idea of rescuing the world from the pit into which it has fallen, and it is to America that we need most to send such a messenger, such a witness of our goodwill, such an assurance of our good faith."

Give her BOVRIL

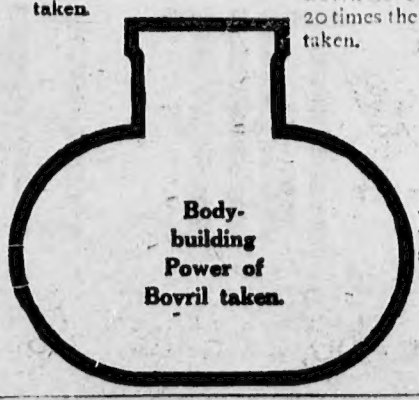

Bovril is one of the most precious food substances in the world. Its beneficent effects are immediate; it acts like a glass of champagne, but without the reaction which wine sometimes brings. Bovril does permanent good by building up the very fabric of the body.

To get the full benefit of Bovril, take it regularly day after day. The value of "a course of Bovril" has been scientifically demonstrated by the independent investigations of Professor Thompson.

Bovril taken.

After bringing human subjects to a constant weight on a standard diet, he added Bovril to the other food, and found the body-building powers of Bovril to be 10 to 20 times the amount taken.

Women Lawyers in Canada

Nova Scotia's first woman lawyer, Miss Emelyne McKenzie, made her first appearance in court recently and won her first case. The first woman to seek admission to the bar in the Maritime Provinces was Miss French, of St. John, now a successful practitioner in Vancouver, who made application for admission in New Brunswick some 10 years or so ago. Her application aroused a good deal of interest at the time because of the contention, raised in opposition to it, that a woman was not a "person" within the meaning of the governing act.

To Dig Out

Prices Will Fall When Production Is Increased

There is only one sure way to cut down the cost of living. Prices will fall when production is increased. With larger supply of what everybody needs to eat, drink and wear and for shelter there will be concurrent drop of cost to the consumer. At the same time there is brought about an equivalent rise in the wages of labor. To stop work is to decrease production. Having endured the war we must now begin the work of repair. One little word of three letters shows the way out of the world dilemma. That word is "dig."—From the Philadelphia Record.

Is He Seventeen or Eighteen?

Do you remember those ages, when your character was being formed — how you followed examples, did what other people did—your senior years at school—your start in business? Recall them if you can. You gained a knowledge you will find useful when your own boy starts out.

Give him the right start. Teach him the value of personal appearance and self respect. Tell him how confidence may be gained merely from a clean shave—or, better still, show him—and show him in a practical way.

Give him a

Will Rest In American Soil

United States Will Bring Home the Bodies of Her Fallen

Washington.—Bodies of all United States soldiers interred in Germany, Belgium, Italy, Great Britain, Luxembourg and Northern Russia will be returned to the United States as soon as necessary transportation can be arranged.

Secretary Baker announced that he had issued instructions for the Purchase, Storage and Traffic Division of the general staff to take charge of the matter, and to hasten it as much as possible.

This action, Mr. Baker said, did not indicate any change in the department's attitude toward the return of the soldier dead in France. Secretary Baker said it was hoped that the great majority of United States parents would decide to let them remain there, but that the wishes of the relatives desiring the bodies returned would be carried out.

The Land Of The Seaplane

The Scandinavians Feel Attracted To The Flying Boat

The creeks and fiords of Scandinavia, from which the Vikings derived their name, appear to be going to play as important a part in the history of the country as they did in ancient days. Scandinavia by her natural formation and proclaims herself the very home of the seaplane, so that it was with particular interest that the citizens of the three kingdoms watched the successful flight of the British seaplane which, only the other day, flew to Christiansand from Dundee and then went on in stages to Christiania, Copenhagen, Stockholm, Goteborg, Esbjerg, and then back to the east coast of England. The Scandinavians are a seafaring people and they see any number of seaplane harbors dotting their land. There, in Sweden, is a natural sea-great lakes, Vattern and Vanern, the Gotha canal and any number of lagoons and lakelets. As for Norway, she is magnificently well off in the matter of fiords and all the large towns of Denmark are approachable by water. The British flying boat in its journey across the North Sea performed the somewhat remarkable feat of arriving at the scheduled time and landing only two miles away from the intended "land-fall" on the Norwegian coast, although it had thick mist and clouds to contend with all the way

Extensive Scheme To Aid Jews

Ten Million Dollar Reconstruction Corporation To Be Organized In U. S. A.

Plans to organize a reconstruction corporation, capitalized at $10,000,000, to aid in the economic rehabilitation of Jewry abroad, were made at a meeting held recently in New York of the joint distribution committee of the American fund for Jewish war sufferers. The corporation, it was announced, hopes eventually to "restore the Jews in Europe to their former self-supporting basis."

Pending the formation of the new corporation, the committee decided upon two preliminary steps — the first to appropriate $200,000 for the organization of an express company for forwarding packages to Poland, and the second to appropriate $200,000 for the immediate purchase of food to be sent abroad.

It was announced that there are 5,000,000 Jews in the war stricken countries of eastern Europe who will be in a state of total or partial dependency during the year.

RHEUMATIC PEOPLE

Can Only Find Relief By Enriching the Blood

Rheumatism is a disorder of the blood. It attacks people when the blood is overcharged with acid and impurities, thus setting up inflammation in the muscles and joints. Wet weather or cold weather of autumn may start the tortures of rheumatism, but is not the cause. The cause is in the blood and the blood only. Victims of this malady have every reason to fear the first dull ache in the limbs and joints, followed by sharp pains through the flesh and muscles; these are the symptoms of poison in the blood which may shortly leave the victim painracked and helpless.

There is only one way to cure rheumatism, and that is through the blood. Liniments, hot applications, and rubbing may give temporary ease, but cannot possibly root the trouble out of the system. That can only be done by the rich, red blood which Dr. Williams' Pink Pills actually make. This new blood drives out the poisonous acids and impurities, and the rheumatism disappears. If you are a sufferer from this painful malady begin curing yourself today by the use of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and see how soon the pains and stiffness of the joints fade away, leaving behind new energy and new health.

You can get Dr. Williams' Pink Pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box, or six boxes for $2.50, from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

Ludendorff is Called A Gambler With Death

Scathing Denunciation of Ludendorff By a German Writer

The burden of Ludendorff's complaint in his memoirs that it was the collapse of the German people that brought about the overthrow of the German armies is fiercely resented in Germany. A writer in a German paper concludes a savage attack upon Ludendorff in these terms:

"We owe our downfall to a preponderance of the enemy's strength and numbers, which would have proved the undoing of any nation. And you yourself, Ludendorff, have contributed most towards making that downfall complete—and not the German people, who today must still suffer hunger for the betrayer who forsook them in cowardice, and throws mud at them in their greatest hour of need.

"I call you the greatest gambler with death which the world has known, because you have continued to murder, although on three different occasions you could have had peace — although you knew that we should one day be defenceless and must atone for all we had done.

"You are a man of the stamp of Wilhelm, who recognized no authority except himself and the Prussian God.

"He lies in Amerongen before his household altar and reproaches his household god for having forsaken him. And you mount upon the pinnacle of the temple in order to bear false witness for the history of the world, and lay the blame for the downfall at the door of the German people, for a downfall which was merely a matter of calculation, for 10 times 1 is 10, and not 01 For Heaven's sake do not boast that Nemesis has not yet overtaken you, and spare us the publication of your mendacious 'Memoirs.'"

Success in Peat Industry

Alfred, Ont.—According to official advice from the commission appointed by the Ontario Government last year to investigate the peat manufacturing possibilities in the north country, considerable success has been achieved. About three thousand tons are now ready for shipment from the Alfred peat bogs, two machines having been in operation for some time. The market price for the finished product is $4 a ton. The work being done is experimental, it being desired to ascertain if peat can be cut and prepared for fuel economically, in spite of the high cost of labor. If the experiment proves successful, the same method will be applied to peat bogs in other parts of the province.

Fresh Supplies in Demand.—Wherever Dr. Thomas' Eclectric Oil has been introduced increased supplies have been ordered, showing that wherever it goes this excellent Oil impresses its power on the people. Which Are The Seven Seas?

That there is magic and mystery in numbers is an ancient tale, and the fact is confirmed by a correspondent asking: "Which are the seven seas?"

Upon inquiry, there appears to be a common consensus as to six of the seven, these six being the Atlantic, the Arctic, Antarctic, Pacific, Mediterranean, and Indian. And just as the ancients, agreeing on six, were divided upon the seventh wonder of the world (some voting for the Pharos of Egypt, others for the Palace of Cyrus), so there is doubt as to whether the seventh sea be the Baltic or the North Sea.

Imperial Veterans and the Gratuity

There are in Canada about 14,000 middle-aged men who were called out as Imperial Reservists, who served all through the war, and who now come back to the land of their adoption to find that, although they do not participate in Canadian war gratuities, they will have to take their share of the taxation and the debt burden resulting from the payment of these gratuities. For the Imperial Veterans who are citizens of Canada, and who fought for over four long years, there has been no gratuity worth while, yet it is seriously proposed to give $2,000 to men only a few weeks in France.—From the Toronto Globe.

A Happy Family

BY DR. S. C. BOWERS.

A happy family is one that can sit down to the table with keen appetites and good cheer. Plenty of the out-of-doors and cleanliness, inside and outside of the body, will make for health, wealth and happiness. Your doctor will tell you that anything from a headache to the most serious illness may result from allowing food to ferment in the intestines. The first thing to do in case you feel mean, logy, dull, perhaps feverish, is to flush the liver and kidneys, drink plenty of water, and take a dose of castor oil, or, something better, made of May-apple, aloin and jalap, and long sold by almost every druggist as Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. This may save you from a fit of sickness, remove the poisons from the system and give the tissues of the body a chance to build up and resist disease.

People are realizing more and more that the kidneys, just as do the bowels, need to be flushed occasionally. The kidneys are an eliminative organ and are constantly working, separating the poisons from the blood. Uric acid backs up into the system, causing rheumatism, neuralgia, dropsy and many other serious disturbances.

This can be avoided by stimulating the kidneys to increased action, and because of its tonic effect on these organs I would advise any one to get Anuric (anti-uric-acid) which is to be had nowadays for fifty cents, at almost any drug store.

A Musical Incident

The young lady attended a concert. As the violinist finished his solo she wept loudly. "Ah!" he said, "she is a lover of music." Rushing to her he clasped her. "I understand," he said, "you have true appreciation." "Yes," she said, "you played grand. But I wept because I neglected to remove my dog's dinner from the stove, and I know it is ruined."

The Best Liver Pill.—The action of the liver is easily disarranged. A sudden chill, undue exposure to the elements, over-indulgence in some favorite food, excess in drinking, are a few of the causes. But whatever may be the cause, Parmelee's Vegetable Pills can be relied upon as the best corrective that can be taken. They are the leading liver pills, and they have no superiors among such preparations.

She Wanted Progress

"No, sah, Ah doan't neber ride on dem things," said an old colored lady looking in on the merry-go-round. "Why, de other day I seen dat Rastus Johnson git on an' ride as much as a dollah's worth an' git off at the very same place he got on at, an' I sez to him, 'Rastus,' I sez, 'you' spent yo' money, but whar yo' been?'"—Boston Transcript.

Laugh When People Step On Your Feet

Try this yourself then pass it along to others. It works!

Ouch ! ? ! ? ! ! This kind of rough talk will be heard less here in town if people troubled with corns will follow the simple advice of this Cincinnati authority, who claims that a few drops of a drug called freezone when applied to a tender, aching corn stops soreness at once, and soon the corn dries up and lifts right out without pain.

He says freezone is an ether compound which dries immediately and never inflames or even irritates the surrounding tissue or skin. A quarter of an ounce of freezone will cost very little at any drug store, but is sufficient to remove every hard or soft corn or callus from one's feet. Millions of American women will welcome this announcement since the inauguration of the high heels.

Boarding houses are probably so called because a man is expected to plank down in advance.

No More Asthma.—Dr. J. D. Kellogg's Asthma Remedy sounds the death-knell of this trying trouble. It stops the awful choking and painful breathing. It guards against night attacks and gives renewed ability to sleep and rest the whole night long. Much is claimed for this remedy, but nothing but what can be demonstrated by a trial. If you suffer from asthma try it and convince yourself of its great value.

George: How?

A Mighty Serious Thing

Borne the Big Load and Been a Good Citizen About It

The average salaried man has kept on the job; he has fed and clothed his family somehow; he has done his full share in buying bonds and sticking away thrift stamps and in giving to all the war causes, he has pinched and economized, taken on extra hours in the home garden; he has done his duty in the main bravely, loyally, patiently, nobly. The biggest thing about him is that he hasn't kicked and howled; he hasn't threatened and menaced; he hasn't bombed or Bolsheviked; he hasn't often complained. He has, indeed, borne the middle of the big load and been a good citizen about it. He is not a whit less of a hero than some others whose work has been more spectacular and whose suffering has been more sanguine.—Savannah News.
